Writing Prompts Ghost Story Workbook #2 This book is unique. Instead of the usual sentence prompts, I took the first sentence from published ghost / paranormal stories for your inspiration (prompt). The prompts are from well and unknown authors. The fun is to use their first opening sentences as your story's first opening sentence. Oh, how clever, right? Yes, it is true that these first sentences could start just about any story, but knowing it came from an actual ghost story, that makes it more fun. Plus, after you write the story, follow the link to read the actual story. 20 first sentence prompts 3.5 pages for your story link to read the actual story from the prompts This book is perfect for book clubs, writers in the midst of writer's block and teachers requiring the perfect book for their creative writing college course (think of all the different ways these sentence can be created into stories ~ and have students compare ~ then read the actual story!). How about each member of a writer's group contributes one / two sentences to each prompt? Think of the ghostly winding roads it will take. Misspell? No problem! Its your book to be creative, silly, imaginative, and of course, scary. Erase, scribble? No problem! It's your book to have fun. Your ghost book / novel may start in this workbook!
