Professional Indemnity Insurance

Oxford University Press, USA This authoritative and practical guide provides a thorough account of the law and practice of professional indemnity insurance. Topics examined include the basis of cover, entering the contract, block notification of claims, aggregation, and the exclusion of cover for fraud and dishonesty. The book also considers the standard terms and policy wordings involved in claims policies and the associated issues that can arise in practice. In addition to providing analysis of English case law, the book also includes authorities from other major Commonwealth jurisdictions to give the most complete interpretation of the law on this specialist area. All key recent cases relating to professional indemnity insurance are covered, for example Omega Proteins Ltd v. Aspen Insurance UK Ltd [2010] EWHC 2280 (Comm) and ACE European Group v. Standard Life Assurance Ltd [2012] EWCA Civ 1713. Additionally, the new edition considers statutory developments since the last edition, most notably the Third Parties (Rights Against Insurers) Act 2010 and the Insurance Act 2015, and topical issues such as aggregation of claims.

Access to and cost of insurance. Task 3

This document contains the analysis of the results of the survey conducted under Task 3 (Access to and cost of insurance). The purpose of Task 3 was to assess the availability and difficulty of acquiring a professional liability insurance by services providers in a cross-border situation. This includes the cost of the acquisition and the contractual elements of acquiring the insurance. To this end, the specific objectives of this task were to: - Establish whether a professional indemnity insurance is available to the providers within the scope of this study in a cross-border situation; - Identify under what conditions/circumstances this insurance is available (including the cost and contractual features of the acquisition); and - Understand how difficult is to fulfil these conditions for the providers in a cross-border situation.

Mapping of national rules on insurance. Task 1

This report presents the analysis of the results of Task 1 (Mapping of national rules on insurance). The purpose of Task 1 was to provide a complete overview of the relevant legal frameworks in the EEA countries and the UK, with regards to professional indemnity insurance requirements and guarantees imposed on selected service providers in 10 sectors, and focusing on those requirements covered by Article 23 of the Services Directive. Article 23 of the Services Directive allows Member States to require providers to subscribe to professional liability insurance or to provide a guarantee or similar arrangements with respect to the provision of services which present a direct and particular risk to the health and safety of the recipient or a third person or to the financial security of the recipient. To this end, the main objective of this task was to: - Identify and describe the main features of national requirements in place for professional indemnity insurance and guarantees and the conditions and procedures of equivalence in the case of establishment and cross-border provision of services.

Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal

The Law Society The Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal (SDT) has the power to strike off a solicitor from the roll, suspend a solicitor from practice, fine or reprimand a solicitor or make such other order as it thinks fit. Whilst over 90% of all cases brought before the SDT are brought by the SRA, it is open to anyone to bring a matter before it. This book provides a unique step-by-step guide to the law and practice of the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal, from the issue of proceedings through to appeal. Its practical approach will help anyone who wishes to avoid the common pitfalls faced by unfamiliar users of the Tribunal. It is the only comprehensive book available on SDT proceedings and it contains all the leading cases on Tribunal proceedings, many of which are not available on the internet, in one handy volume.

Assessment of the impact of national rules on insurance on service providers. Task 2

This report contains the analysis of the results of the assessments conducted under Task 2 (Assessment of the impact of national rules on insurance on service providers). The aim of Task 2 was to provide an assessment of the insurance requirements identified under Task 1. More specifically, Task 2 was divided into two sub-tasks (sub-tasks 2.1 and 2.2). Sub-task 2.1 aimed to assess the compliance of the insurance requirements identified under Task 1 with the relevant provisions of the Services Directive (especially Articles 14(7) and 23). Sub-task 2.2 aimed to assess the level of availability and difficulty of acquiring information on professional liability insurance by services providers through online means.

Professional Services Agreements

Thomas Telford The book describes those issues that a professional should expect to find in a comprehensive services agreement. It is the first to deal in detail with the particular risks that are inherent in non-standard agreements. It discusses the legal liabilities that might be imposed on the professional if those risks are accepted. Reference is made to some of the standard conditions produced by professional bodies. The scope of professional indemnity insurance is also covered.

The legal profession

discussion paper no. 3 : professional indemnity insurance

"For many years, some insurers have offered policies to cover lawyers in New South Wales against claims for professional negligence and some other claims arising out of practice as a lawyer. The cover is usually known as "professional indemnity insurance"...In this Discussion Paper we consider whether professional indemnity insurance should be compulsory for legal practitioners. We also consider what form any such compulsory scheme should take." -- p. 5.
