THE OCEAN IN A DROP

INSIDE-OUT YOUTH LEADERSHIP

SAGE Publishing India The Ocean in a Drop explores how young people have contributed significantly to society in the past, and suggests ways in which they can take centre stage again. Traditionally, society has legitimized four spaces for young people: the family, friends, education/careers, and leisure. The book introduces the concept of the 5th Space—a space that goes beyond the commonly used terms of volunteerism and Active Citizenship and focuses on three critical aspects of youth development: understanding the Self, building meaningful relationships, and impacting Society. By facilitating young people to connect their selves with society and by developing skills, values, and attitudes that enable them to impact the world around them, 5th Spaces become a critical strategy for renewing society. From the lessons learnt from the Indian Independence movement, theories of youthhood, interviews with key stakeholders, and Pravah's own experiences of working with young people, the book argues that youth once again need to be at the forefront of nation building.

DROPS FROM THE OCEAN

99 DROPS FROM ENDLESS MERCY OCEANS

Lulu.com This book is a collection of 99 sohjets or speeches delivered by the Sheikh of the Sufi Order Naqshbandi, Mawlana Sheikh Nazim al-Haqqani ar Rabbani . Several themes are discussed, such as Islam, love, truth, spirituality, etc. Only by the light of the Spiritual Path and the mystic way can the Truth be discovered. In order for one to truly witness the Perfection of the Absolute, one must see with one's inner being, which perceives the whole of Reality. This witnessing happens when one becomes perfect, losing one's (partial) existence in the Whole. If the Whole is likened to the Ocean, and the part to a drop, the sufi says that witnessing the Ocean with the eye of a drop is impossible. However, when the drop becomes one with the Ocean, it sees the Ocean with the eye of the Ocean .

OCEANIC DROPS

BOOK OF POEMS

Notion Press Oceanic drops is a book of poems on nature, romance, philosophy, comedy, stories etc. It is entertaining and enriching. Rhyming words, puns, alliterations and tongue-twisters give the poems tremendous wordplay. The poems cover even unlikely topics - chess, hockey, algebra, internet etc. The poem on 'Chess' will put the reader directly onto a human-chess-board-battle field. In the poem 'Grave engravings', readers are taken on a comical tour of cemetery to come across hilarious engravings. 'Smart kitten' will make readers laugh with its cunningly woven story of how a cute kitten outsmarted an aggrieved husband, much to the delight of his wife. The poem 'Making fun of God' narrates how the attitudes and behavior of common man would be deemed as 'making fun of god'. The book contains grand and mesmerizing expressions. One could feel the pulse, beat and thud in these poems...

A NOVEL

She Writes Press GOLD: NAUTILUS BOOK AWARD, FICTION, LARGE PUBLISHER (2016) GOLD: SARTON WOMEN'S BOOK AWARD, CONTEMPORARY FICTION (2016) GOLD: INDEPENDENT PUBLISHER BOOK AWARDS (IPPYS), BEST FICTION, AUSTRALIA/NEW ZEALAND (2016) SILVER: READERS' FAVORITE INTERNATIONAL BOOK AWARD, WOMEN'S FICTION On her 49th birthday, Anna Fergusson, Boston neuroscientist and dedicated introvert, arrives at an unwanted crossroads when the funding for her research lab is cut. With her confidence shattered and her future uncertain, on impulse she rents a cabin for a year on Australia's Great Barrier Reef. However Turtle Island, alive with sea birds and nesting Green turtles, is not the retreat she expected. Here she finds love—for the eccentric islanders who become her family; for Tom, the laid-back turtle whisperer; and for the turtles whose ancient mothering instincts move her to tears. But Anna finds that even on her idyllic drop in the ocean there is pain, and as the months fly past her dream for a new life is threatened by a darkness that challenges everything she has come to believe about the power of love. Evocative and thought-provoking, A Drop in the Ocean is a story about second chances and hard lessons learned in the gentlest of ways.

SINGAPORE: THE NEXT FIFTY YEARS

World Scientific ' The IPS-Nathan Lectures series was launched by the Institute of Policy Studies (IPS) in 2014. It is part of the S R Nathan Fellowship for the Study of Singapore. The Fellowship was set up to fund further research into public policy, with the S R Nathan Fellow, who is appointed annually, delivering between four and six lectures each year. These lectures aim to advance public understanding and discussion of issues of critical national interest. Ho Kwon Ping was the 2014/15 S R Nathan Fellow for the Study of Singapore. This book contains the five IPS-Nathan Lectures he gave between October 2014 and April 2015, as well as highlights of the accompanying dialogue with the audience. In his lectures, Ho looks forward to the next 50 years, offering innovative ideas and robust views on how governance and key institutions can evolve to ensure the sustainable continuation of Singapore – the "improbable nation". This book illuminates Ho's vision of a cohesively diverse Singapore lasting beyond the lifespan of his generation, and aims to get the young to ponder and discuss the kind of home, and future, they wish for. Contents: Politics and Governance Economy and Business Security and Sustainability Demography and Family Society and Identity Readership: General public, professionals, students, researchers, diplomats, and foreign visitors interested in knowing more about Singapore and what lies ahead for the city-state. Key Features: The lectures cover the breadth of social issues facing Singapore today and specifically picks apart the most pertinent topics within each broad category Ho Kwon Ping is known for his independent thought and speech The lectures are deliberately accessible to the lay person, and shies away from the technical terms of academia Keywords: IPS-Nathan; Singapore; Future; Ho Kwon Ping; Politics; Governance; Demography; Family; Society; Identity; Security; Sustainability; Economy; Business "The book is not so much a scholarly treatise as it is a general interest book." THE OCEAN OF AIR

METEOROLOGY FOR BEGINNERS

THE DROP AND THE OCEAN

Daniel, the hero of this book represents the man thirsty for knowledge who, according to Jesus, 'asks and will be given', receives the answers he needed to gain the inner peace so necessary to us all, through the master who appears at the right time, as they say, when the student is ready. The book contains ten chapters through which the Master answers the Disciple to his existential questions about what is manifested, that is Creation and what is Unmanifested, that is Divinity or God. The manifestation contains the physical world, which we all know, and the unseen, energy world that lives in other physical dimensions. The fact that we do not see the other worlds makes us believe that they do not exist and live in ignorance. As we evolve spiritually, leaving behind the ego and ignorance, we gain access to the higher worlds. We can perceive at that point the reality of everything that exists, but cannot be seen through the sense of sight.

OCEAN FALLS

This is the true story of the men aboard the destroyer escort U.S.S. HOLT (DE-706) during World War II. The HOLT story begins with the ship's construction in 1943, launching in 1944, continues through its missions in the Pacific, and concludes with its decommissioning after the war in 1946. Major missions included Leyte Gulf Landings, a slow-tow convoy to Mindoro, the Lingayen Gulf Campaign, and the Legaspi Operation. The HOLT was one of twenty-two Rudderow class destroyer escorts built during WWII. The HOLT and five other destroyer escorts became part of Escort Division 74 and participated in various task groups and units in the Philippine area. Enjoy learning about the ship's missions and the crew with their many stories as they served their country with valor.

THE OCEAN FELL INTO THE DROP

A MEMOIR

Watkins Media Limited During my first visit to the cinema the empathy I felt from Gary Cooper was life-changing, and a secret dream was born in the darkened auditorium. Later, my forays to the East revealed an original take on humanity which fell into two categories: those who remembered and those who didn't. The former by teaching the latter could transmit this memory, and communicate this spark of creation directly into the being of the other. The Ocean Fell into the Drop is a different kind of showbusiness memoir, one that traces Terence Stamp's twin obsessions, acting and mysticism, and the relationship the two have to each other for him, through the trajectory of his life. On the way he discusses his directors, Fellini, Loach, Pasolini; actors, Olivier, Brando and Redgrave; and spiritual masters, Krishnamurti and Hazarat Inayat Khan, as well as his family, life in the East End, Sufism and style.
