If You Didn't Bring Jerky, What Did I Just Eat?

Misadventures in Hunting, Fishing, and the Wilds of Suburbia

Grove/Atlantic, Inc. A hilarious collection of essays dedicated to life in the great outdoors from Field & Stream's acclaimed Sportsman's Life columnist. For nearly a decade, Bill Heavey, an outdoorsman marooned in suburbia, has written the Sportsman's Life column on the back page of Field & Stream, where he does for hunting and fishing what David Feherty does for golf and Lewis Grizzard did for the South. If You Didn't Bring Jerky, What Did I Just Eat? is the first collection of Heavey's sidesplitting observations on life as a hardcore (but often hapless) outdoorsman. Whether he's hunting cougars in the desert, scheming to make his five-year-old daughter love fishing, or chronicling his father's life through a succession of canine companions, Heavey brings his trademark wit to a wide-range of outdoor enthusiasms, running the gamut from elite expeditions to ordinary occupations. In turns hysterical and poignant, entertaining and educational, this is an irresistible addition to the collection of any avid outdoorsman—or any suburbanite intrigued by the call of the wild.

The Farming and Memorandum Books of Henry Best of Elmswell, 1642

With a Glossary and Linguistic Commentary by Peter McClure

British Academy In the early 1640s Henry Best, a gentleman farmer of Elmswell in the East Riding of Yorkshire, composed an account of his farming practices. The resulting Farming Book provides a unique account of seventeenth-century farming, of the marketing of agricultural produce, and of rural customs. It is here published in a new transcription by Donald Woodward. In addition, a complete transcript of Henry Best's Memorandum Book is published for the first time; this volume gives details of a wide range of day-to-day transactions mainly during the period 1617 to 1645. The editor adds greatly to our knowledge of Henry Best, his family and estate in a substantial introduction, and much ancillary documentary evidence is provided in a series of appendices. The volume is rounded off by an extensive new glossary prepared by Peter McClure.

To Boldly Grow

Finding Joy, Adventure, and Dinner in Your Own Backyard

Penguin A love-letter to the unexpected delights (and occasional despair) of so-called "first-hand food"—meals we grow, forage, fish, or even hunt from the world around us. To Boldly Grow is "part memoir, part how-to guide and wholly delightful" (Washington Post). Journalist and self-proclaimed "crappy gardener" Tamar Haspel is on a mission: to show us that raising or gathering our own food is not as hard as it's often made out to be. When she and her husband move from Manhattan to two acres on Cape Cod, they decide to adopt a more active approach to their diet: raising chickens, growing tomatoes, even foraging for mushrooms and hunting their own meat. They have more ambition than practical know-how, but that's not about to stop them from trying...even if sometimes their reach exceeds their (often muddy) grasp. With "first-hand food" as her guiding principle, Haspel embarks on a grand experiment to stop relying on experts to teach her the ropes (after all, they can make anything grow), and start using her own ingenuity and creativity. Some of her experiments are a rousing success (refining her own sea salt). Others are a spectacular failure (the turkey plucker engineered from an old washing machine). Filled with practical tips and hard-won wisdom, To Boldly Grow allows us to journey alongside Haspel as she goes from cluelessness to competence, learning to scrounge dinner from the landscape around her and discovering that a direct connection to what we eat can utterly change the way we think about our food--and ourselves.

The Psychic Life of Power

Theories in Subjection

Stanford University Press Judith Butler's new book considers the way in which psychic life is generated by the social operation of power, and how that social operation of power is concealed and fortified by the psyche that it produces. It combines social theory, philosophy, and psychoanalysis in novel ways, and offers a more sustained analysis of the theory of subject formation implicit in her previous books.

The Fishing Smart Anywhere Handbook for Salt Water & Fresh Water

Welcome to the premiere edition of "The Fishing Smart Anywhere Handbook for Salt Water & Fresh Water." As an award-winning author, I embrace (along with my companion of over forty years, Donna) a number of water-related activities. Sixty years of experience went into writing this concise yet comprehensive guide. If I had to sum up this handbook in a single word, it is all about having Fun. Be it spin casting, bait casting or the supposed arcane art of fly casting, together we will target new tackle, examine time-tested techniques, and apply innovative approaches to these three basic methods- methods that will give the angler the added edge. Whether saltwater or freshwater fishing, clamming, crabbing, kayaking, cooking seafood or smoking fish, selecting the proper equipment is of paramount importance. The information presented will prove priceless, providing you with practical advice, serious savings, unprecedented quality and value. That's a promise, not hyperbole. Get it right the first time, and avoid unnecessary aggravation and expense. Taking fresh fish and shellfish from our seas and shores is rewarding, for there is a world of delectable fare that awaits you. Perfected over the course of many years, I present gourmet recipes that will delight you, your family and friends. Written in an informative, entertaining and often humorous fashion, this handbook is for the beginner, intermediate as well as the advanced outdoors enthusiast, serving as either a condensed treatment of a subject or a concise reference. I offer you a unique approach in that this information is superbly blended and balanced to accommodate all levels of experience-from introducing and instructing newcomers to many enjoyable and rewarding water-related activities, to presenting veteran outdoorsmen/women with creative techniques. Residing on the water, Donna and I live, sleep, breathe and share our outdoor experiences with you. Having spent sixty years plying the waters along the eastern seaboard, we have made the East End of Long Island our home and playground for the past twenty-three years. We have been praised by Angelo Peluso-outdoors author, columnist and avid fisherman-as the "Best writing and fishing tag-team on Long Island." I invite you to join Donna and me on our continual journey. Living the good life is yours for the taking.
