Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights A Commentary on the TRIPS Agreement Oxford Commentaries on Interna The TRIPS Agreement is the most comprehensive and influential international treaty on intellectual property rights. It brings intellectual property rules into the framework of the World Trade Organization, obliging all WTO Member States to meet minimum standards of intellectual property protection and enforcement. This has required massive changes in some national laws, particularly in developing countries. This volume provides a detailed legal analysis of the provisions of the TRIPS Agreement, as well as elements to consider their economic implications in different legal and socio-economic contexts. This book provides an in depth analysis of the principles and of the substantive and enforcement provisions of the TRIPS Agreement, the most influential international treaty on intellectual property currently in force. It discusses the legal context in which the Agreement was negotiated, the objectives of their proponents and the nature of the obligations it created for the members of the World Trade Organization. In particular, it examines the minimum standards that must be implemented with regard to patents, trademarks, industrial designs, geographical indications, copyright and related rights, integrated circuits, trade-secrets and test data for pharmaceutical and agrochemical products. Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights: A Commentary on the TRIPS Agreement elaborates on the interpretation of provisions contained in said Agreement, in the light of the customary principles for the interpretation of international law. The analysis -which is supported by a review of the relevant GATT and WTO jurisprudence- identifies the policy space left to such members to implement their obligations in accordance with their own legal systems and public policy objectives, including in respect of complex issues such as patentability criteria, compulsory licenses, exceptions and limitations to copyright, border measures, injunctive relief and the protection of test data under the discipline of unfair competition. Unternehmensfinanzierung am Kapitalmarkt in den arabischen Staaten Eine rechtsvergleichende Analyse von Aktien-, Anleihe- und Hybridemissionen am Beispiel Ägyptens, der Vereinigten Arabischen Emirate, Saudi-Arabiens und Jordaniens Mohr Siebeck English summary: Since the privatization of the public sector and the emergence of organized capital markets in the Arab world, the organizational structures and financing models of many Arab corporations have been subject to profound change. Where until recently, the corporate landscape knew only the model of the closed family business and the individual enterprise, more and more Arab companies now offer shares to a wide circle of investors or finance themselves through market-listed bonds. Against this background, Carlo Pohlhausen examines the principles of civil, corporate and capital market law governing corporate finance in the capital markets of Egypt, the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia and Jordan, putting them into their historical context and analyzing them in both the context of their cultural environment and the findings of research on modern capital markets. In this way, the author establishes a variety of contradictory connections between adopted law, local solutions and the influence of global financial markets and suggests ways of resolving them in accordance with legal realities through more efficient regulation. German description: Seit der Privatisierung des öffentlichen Sektors und der Entstehung organisierter Kapitalmärkte im arabischen Raum unterliegen die Organisationsstrukturen und Finanzierungsformen vieler arabischer Gesellschaften einem tiefgreifenden Wandel. Während die Unternehmenslandschaft bis vor wenigen Jahren nur das Modell der geschlossenen Familiengesellschaft und des Einzelunternehmers kannte, bieten zunehmend mehr arabische Gesellschaften ihre Aktien einem breiten Anlegerpublikum an oder finanzieren sich über borsennotierte Anleihen. Vor diesem Hintergrund untersucht Carlo Pohlhausen die zivil-, gesellschafts- und kapitalmarktrechtlichen Grundlagen der Unternehmensfinanzierung am Kapitalmarkt in Ägypten, den Vereinigten Arabischen Emiraten, Saudi-Arabien und Jordanien, ordnet sie historisch ein und analysiert sie im Kontext ihres kulturellen Umfelds und der Erkenntnisse der modernen Kapitalmarktforschung. Mit diesem Ansatz erarbeitet der Autor eine Vielzahl von Spannungsverhältnissen zwischen rezipiertem Recht, regionalen Lösungen und den Einflüssen globaler Finanzmärkte und zeigt Möglichkeiten, sie im Einklang mit den rechtstatsächlichen Gegebenheiten durch effizientere Regulierung aufzulösen.
